ASA SESSIONS AT A GLANCE

This is a snapshot of the program as it existed on September 13, 2011. The most up-to-date version of the program can be found online at theasa.net.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 20, 2011

7:30 AM – 8:00 AM
Breakfast for American Studies Program and Center Directors

8:00 AM – 9:45 AM
ASA Committee on American Studies Programs and Centers
  Breakfast Workshop: Global Collaborations in American Studies: Learning from Practitioners

8:00 AM – 3:00 PM
Business Meeting of the National Council

10:00 AM – 11:45 AM
ASA International Committee Talkshop I: The Internationalization
  of Latino/a Studies

12:00 PM – 1:45 PM
Barbaric Imaginations: Remapping Neoliberalisms through
  Transnational Literature and Culture
Reparative Justice and the Failures of Government
Violent Transformations: Imagining the Gendered Body
Markets, Networks, Power
Imagining Symbolic Landscapes in Times of Transformation
Sexuality and Transnationalism: Transforming Silences
Imagining “Preposterous Encounters” between Postcolonial
  Studies and American Studies
Subcultural Crossings: Intersectionality and the Politics of Cultural Identity
The U.S. Military: Social Effects in Global Contexts
Views from the Diaspora: Visual Culture and Troubled Returns
Cross-Cultural Encounters In and Of Place
Genocide: Questioning Reparative and Transformative
  Roles of Religion
The Hard Sell: Media and Advertising Reconsidered
Recovering Indigenous Manuscripts, Transforming American Studies: A Kiowa War Book from Fort Marion
Who Wants Kids, Anyway? Intergenerational Desire and the Transformation of American Culture
Appalachian Studies: Cultural, Economic, Environmental, and Literary Perspectives

36
ASA SESSIONS AT A GLANCE

Thursday, October 20 (continued)

Not Even a Bench by the Road: Black Absence, Amnesia, and the Aesthetics of Racial Reparations ................................................. 94
Business Meeting of the American Studies Editorial Board .......... 95
International Partnership Luncheon ............................................. 95

2:00 PM – 3:45 PM

Gender, Sexuality and Settler Colonialism ..................................... 95
Humanity at the Margins ............................................................... 95
Disciplinary (Re)form ................................................................. 96
Transatlantic Transformations ...................................................... 96
Utah Transformations: Religion, Race, Industry, and Ecology .......... 97
Imagining Mexicanness, Imagining Mexican Women ......................... 97
ASA International Committee Talkshop II: Teaching Native American and First Nations Literatures in International Classrooms ............................................................ 98
The Roots/Routes of Dispossession: Imagining and Transforming Nature .......................................................... 98
We Create Our Own Reality: The War on Terror and Visual Narrative Representation ........................................................... 99
The Tutelary Project of American Empire in the Philippines .......... 99
Queer Geographies and the Transformation of Place in the Southwest .......................................................... 100
How to Do Things with Affect ...................................................... 100
Transformation across Diasporas: Re-centering the International Left in the Global Racial Imaginary .......................................................... 101
Towards a Sensual Politics: Nation, Race, and Sense Perception ... 101
Innovating the Religious Imagination: Religion and Technology since 1800 .......................................................... 102
Sex, Race, and Nation: Transforming Radicalism in the Twentieth Century .......................................................... 102
Black Psychoanalysis in the 1950s ............................................... 103
African American Soundscapes and Sound Theory ......................... 103
Business Meeting of the Minority Scholars Committee ................. 104

3:00 PM – 6:00 PM

Business Meeting of the Committee on Regional Chapters .......... 104

4:00 PM – 5:45 PM

Micro-Economies/Micro-Cultures ................................................. 104
Early American Matters Caucus: Early American Methodologies ... 105
Folk, Pop, and Indie Rock: Race and Ethnicity in American Music ... 105
Science and Romantic Travel in America’s Hemispheric Empire ...... 106
Necro-Americas: Borders, Biopolitics, and Civic Subjectivities since 9/11 .......................................................... 106
ASA International Committee Talkshop III: Teaching the American “Other” in Diverse Cultural Contexts ......................... 107
ASA SESSIONS AT A GLANCE

Thursday, October 20 (continued)
Voicing a Riff: The Village Voice Music Section and Its Critical Legacy ................................. 107
Solidarity, Shock, and Sentiment: The United States and Latin America in the 1980s................................. 108
The Politics of Pedagogy .................................................. 108
Three Documentaries: Emergent Discursive Strategies from a Conservative Activist American Religious Movement ................................. 109
Transgender Resistance: Space and Mobility in the Politics of War .................................................. 109
The Nuyorican Movement, Aesthetics, and Feminism .................................................. 110
Commemoration and the Politics of the Past .................................................. 110
Diaspora Agriculture: Land, Empire and Reparation in Antebellum African-American Culture .................................................. 111
Imagining and Transforming the Black Atlantic: Emancipations and Empires in the Americas and Africa .................................................. 111
Motherhood in the Mind’s Eye: Remapping Scapes of Imagined Motherhood .................................................. 112

4:00 PM – 9:00 PM
Business Meeting of the Nominating Committee .................................................. 113

6:00 PM – 7:45 PM
ASA Presidential Panel: Arrested Development: Race and Urban Space in Baltimore and Detroit .................................................. 113

8:00 PM – 9:45 PM
Welcome Reception .................................................. 113

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 2011

7:45 AM – 8:45 AM
Minority Scholars’ Committee Mentoring Breakfast .................................................. 114

7:45 AM – 9:45 AM
Breakfast Meeting of the International Journal Editors .................................................. 114
ASA Students’ Committee Forum I: Mock Job Interview Workshop .................................................. 114

8:00 AM – 9:45 AM
Imagine Kinship and Strangerhood in the Long Nineteenth Century .................................................. 114
The First Amendment and Fallen Heroes: The Unpleasant Case of Snyder v. Phelps .................................................. 115
Skeptics and Salesmen: Reimagining Religion’s Role in the Fight for Racial Equality .................................................. 115
ASA SESSIONS AT A GLANCE

Friday, October 21 (continued)

Reenvisioning Militarism: A Roundtable Conversation on Transforming Visual Cultures of War .......................... 116
Afro-Latinidades and American Studies: Reimagining the Boundaries of Our Geopolitics of Knowledge .................. 116
Encountering the Nation: Performances of Belonging, Community, and Transformation ........................................... 117
Institutionalizing Gender: Movements of Feminisms ................. 117
New Media and the Transformation of the Social .................. 118
Critical Prison Studies Teaches against the Prison Industrial Complex: Strategies and Tools across Disciplines .......... 118
Reimagining Femme Subjectivity: A Roundtable Dialogue on Queer Political Currencies ........................................ 119
At the Intersections of Queer and Indigenous Studies:
  Contextualizing the Work of Janice Gould .......................... 119
The Radical Imagination: Comparative Social Movements, 1970s to Present .............................................................. 119
Dirty Looks: Black Visuality and Vulgar Vernacular Cultures .... 120
Transforming Liberalism: African American Fiction of the Postwar Period ................................................................. 121
Labor, Corporations, and the State ........................................ 121
Mixing Our Work with the Earth: Transforming Our Environments to Transform Our Lives ................................. 122

8:00 AM – 12:00 PM

Business Meeting of the 2012 Program Committee .................. 122

10:00 AM – 11:45 AM

Fighting for Environmental Justice: Stories and Lessons from the Field ................................................................. 122
Race, Religion, and Empire ................................................ 123
Media Transformation in Early America ............................... 123
Performative Black Christianity and the Logics of Religious Representation .............................................................. 124
Transforming Nations: Reflections on Constitutional Reform in Indian Country ......................................................... 124
Caucus on Academic and Community Activism I: The Present/ Absent of Palestine: American Studies, Academic Freedom, and the Last Taboo ........................................................ 125
ASA Students’ and Graduate Education Committees: Roundtable Discussion on Graduate Student Labor ............. 125
ASA Minority Scholars’ Committee: What We Wish We Had Known: A Tenure-Track Survival Guide .................. 125
ASA Committee on American Studies Programs and Centers:
  Invigorating, Transforming and Sustaining Undergraduate American Studies .......................................................... 126
Environment and Culture Caucus: Imagining (and Transforming) the Future of Environmental Studies: A Roundtable .......... 126
ASA SESSIONS AT A GLANCE

Friday, October 21 (continued)

Techplomacy: New Media and International Relations .............. 126
Critical Prison Studies Reenvisions Carceral Space: Critical
    Perspectives on Incarceration and Location .................... 127
Affective Histories, Critical Transformations:
    A Roundtable Discussion ........................................ 127
Childhood and Citizenship ........................................... 128
Imagining Health and Disease, Transforming Racial Subjectivities .. 128
Visual Cultural Studies ............................................... 129
ASA Committee on Ethnic Studies I: Sounding Race ................ 129
Reimagining and Transforming Bodies at the Borders: Gender,
    Sexuality, and Immigration ...................................... 130
Transformative Mediations? Ethnic and Queer Studies and the Politics of the Digital .......................................... 130
Business Meeting of the Politics and Policy Caucus .................. 131
Business Meeting of the Early American Matters Caucus ............... 131

10:00 AM – 12:00 PM
Guided Tour at the American Visionary Art Museum .................. 131

11:00 AM – 1:00 PM
Tour of the Reginald F. Lewis Museum ................................ 131

11:00 AM – 7:00 PM
Film Series 1: “Baltimore as Muse” .................................. 132

12:00 PM – 1:45 PM
The Roots and Routes of Black Feminist Criticism ..................... 132
Ghetto Biennale: Street Sculpture, Urban Environmentalism, and
    New Ecologies of Haitian Art ..................................... 132
Radical Prison Studies beyond ASA: Special Roundtable Session
    with U.S. Political Prisoner Eddie Conway and (Baltimore Area)
    Students, College Debaters, and Activists ...................... 133
Mapping Biomedicalization: “Health,” Identities, and Power in the Contemporary United States ................................ 133
Queer Transnational Intimacies and Imaginaries ...................... 134
Society for the History of Authorship, Reading, and Publishing
    (SHARP): Religious Reading, Imagined Communities, and
    Social Transformation .............................................. 134
Caucus on Academic and Community Activism II: Palestine/Israel in the Age of Obama ................................................ 135
ASA Students’ Committee Forum II: Graduate Student and Junior
    Faculty Research, Publishing and Professionalization .......... 135
Musical Migrations, Political Transformations: Reassembling
    Caribbean Musics in the Post-War United States ................. 136
Religion and American Culture Caucus: Travel and Transformation: Global Perspectives on American
    Religious Cultures ................................................... 136
ASA SESSIONS AT A GLANCE

Friday, October 21 (continued)

ASA Graduate Education Committee: Changes and Challenges in American Studies Graduate Curriculum .......................... 137
Transforming Scholarly Research in the Digital Age (Sponsored by the Digital Humanities Caucus) ........................... 137
War and the Intimate: Deployments of Gender in the U.S. Military .......................................................... 137
Social Transformation and Imagining Home ......................................... 138
Reinventing Beginnings: A Reading of Foundational Latino/a Narratives in the Twenty-first Century ............................. 139
Activism and Activists in the Sixties and Beyond ......................................... 139
Visual Culture Caucus: From Decay to Deterioration: Questioning the Aesthetics of Abandonment ..................... 140
Art, Politics, and Identity in Early America .................................... 140
Reimagining the Work of Weddings: Wedding Planning, Gay Weddings, and Monstrous Brides ............................ 141
Aberration and Incarceration ......................................................... 141
Business Meeting of the American Studies Programs and Centers Committee ............................................... 142
Business Meeting of the Childhood and Youth Studies Caucus ........... 142

2:00 PM – 3:45 PM

Rethinking Neo-Slave Narratives .................................................. 142
Fighting Blight: Racial and Sexual Minority Reaction to the Rhetoric of Urban Decay ........................................ 142
Information Session on Fulbright Scholar Program ........................................ 143
Imposing Science, Rethinking Health ........................................... 143
Religious Remedies, Purifying Panaceas, and Saving Suds:
  Transforming American Bodies .................................................. 143
  Reimagining Iran: Transformations in Transnational Activism ........ 144
  Settler Colonialism and the Politics of Decolonization: Theory, Strategy, Solidarity ........................................ 144
Black Children and the “Tender Years”: Race and Age in Law,
  Literature, and Photography ....................................................... 145
ASA Committee on Ethnic Studies II: The Geographies of Latinidad 145
ASA Presidential Panel: Transforming Higher Education for the Digital Age .................................................. 146
War and/on the Environment: Critical Directions in American Studies ..................................... 146
Roundtable: Teaching the Introduction to American Studies ............. 147
The Musical Imaginary: Race, Class, and Authenticity ...................... 147
Hot Sex on a Platter: Erotic Revolutionaries and Punanny Politics in Black Popular Culture ............................. 148
Afrofuturism ................................................................. 148
Biopolitics and Posthumanism ...................................................... 148
Imagining Class in America and in American Studies ...................... 149
Business Meeting of the Students’ Committee ................................ 149
Business Meeting of the Encyclopedia of American Studies
  Editorial Board ................................................................. 150
ASA SESSIONS AT A GLANCE

Friday, October 21 (continued)

4:00 PM – 5:00 PM
Business Meeting of the Material Culture Caucus ................. 150

4:00 PM – 5:45 PM
Imagining Latinidad and Citizenship in Popular Cultures ........ 150
Black Panels, White Gutters: Race, Resistance, and Representation in American Comics and Sequential Art .......................... 150
American Studies and the University in Question ................... 151
Getting the Nation Right with God: American Politics in the Conservative Christian Imagination ................................. 151
Race, Gender, And Violence ........................................... 152
Re-Visioning Democracy: Challenging Dictatorship in the Middle East and Beyond, A Roundtable .......................... 152
Indigeneity, Violence and the State ................................. 152
Transforming the Framework, Re-Imagining Black Masculinities ... 153
Urban Afterlives ......................................................... 153
Science and Technology Caucus: The Labor of Digital Production:
Race, Identity, and the New Social Networks ...................... 154
Children and Media .................................................. 154
Reading the Politics of the Sport Spectacle ......................... 155
Slurry, Sludge, and Sandstorms: Imagining Nature and Nationalism in the Transition to Industrial Modernity .......... 155
Before and Behind the Lens: Ethnicity, Power and Memory in Early Twentieth-Century Photography ............................. 156
Does Queer Studies Neglect the Nation?: Pinkwashing and the Limits of the Queer Transnational Imagination ................. 156
Early American Matters Caucus: Early American Biopolitics .... 156
Bases, Barracks, and Battleships: Militarized Spaces,
Tourist Practices ...................................................... 157
ASA Committee on Ethnic Studies III: The Question of Reparations for Slavery, Internment and Native Land .......... 158

5:00 PM – 6:00 PM
Business Meeting of the Visual Culture Caucus .................. 158

6:00 PM – 7:00 PM
Reception of the University of Maryland Department of
American Studies ....................................................... 158

7:00 PM – 8:00 PM
ASA Awards Ceremony .............................................. 159

8:00 PM – 9:30 PM
ASA Presidential Address: Cells, Stories and Social Justice .... 159
ASA SESSIONS AT A GLANCE

Friday, October 21 (continued)
9:30 PM – 10:30 PM
ASA President’s Reception .................................................. 159

10:30 PM – 11:55 PM
ASA President’s Address/Reception After Party ..................... 159

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 22, 2011

7:45 AM – 9:45 AM
ASA Students’ Committee Forum III: Innovative Research, Transformative Methods: A Discussion with Student ASA Regional Award Winners .................. 160

8:00 AM – 9:45 AM
Women’s Breakfast ................................................................. 160
Business Meeting of the Science and Technology Caucus .......... 161
Regulation, Citizenship, and Communication Technologies ....... 161
Queer Publicity: Gay Club Ephemera and Fantasies of the Social Body ................................................................. 161
American Studies in the Public Square: Recent Forays into the Public Humanities ...................................................... 162
The Labors of Leisure: Critical Perspectives on Work and Sport ...... 162
Automation or Imagination? Aesthetics and Politics in the History of Electrical Communication ...................................... 163
American Quarterly Theme Session I: Sound in American Studies ... 164
The Global Creation of American Citizens: Migrations and Mobilities ................................................................. 164
Sounds of Response in the Age of Communicative Capitalism ...... 164
K–16 Collaboration Committee: Welcome Breakfast and Panel Discussion ................................................................. 165
Imagining True Crime: An American Genre .............................. 165
Critical Prison Studies, Abolitionist Epistemology, and Anti-Disciplinary Scholarship .................................................. 166
From Southeast Asia to the Caribbean: New Geographies of American Studies ............................................................. 166
Feeling “Right” in the Twenty-First Century: The Conservative Affective Imagination ....................................................... 167
What the Public Body Hides: Displaced Narratives, Recurring Damages ................................................................. 167
The Meaning of War in the Colonial American Context .............. 168
Transnational Literary Radicalism ............................................ 168
Reimagining the Cold War ....................................................... 169
ASA SESSIONS AT A GLANCE

_Saturday, October 22 (continued)_

Transforming Reparation: Restaging U.S. Empire through Redress, Reconciliation, and Memory .................................................. 169
Silicon Valley: Knowledge, Economy, Geography ........................................... 170
Robot Skin: The Consumption of Race through Technoscience ................. 170

10:00 AM – 11:45 AM

Contemporary Art and Politics .......................................................... 171
Race and Reproduction ................................................................. 171
The Architectural Conditions for Belief: The Built Environment of Contemporary American Religion ................................................. 172
Musical Lives and Imaginaries in B’More and the Chocolate City ............ 172
Race and Medicine: An Interdisciplinary Discourse ................................ 173
Digital Humanities Caucus: Lightening Shorts: A Reconfigured Conference Session for the Digital Humanities ........................................ 173
American Quarterly Theme Session II: Reconstructing Higher Education: Now What Do We Do? .................................................... 173
Behind The Wire .............................................................................. 174
ASA Students’ Committee Forum IV: Looking Outside the Bubble: Collaborative and Full-time Opportunities for American Studies Scholars outside of Academe ......................................................... 174
A Forum on Frederick Douglass: Issues, Legacies .................................. 175
K–16 Collaboration Committee: College Unbound: Undergraduate Learning, Campus Community Collaboration, and Full Participation .......................................................... 175
Humor Studies Caucus: Humor as Reparation and Representation ........... 175
Critical Prison Studies of Attica: The Political Imagination and Radical Social Transformation ......................................................... 176
Catalytic Traditions and Transitions: Re-Imagining Our Investigation and Teaching of Histories of Activism, Migration, and Settlement ........................................................................ 177
What Constitutes “The Political”? ....................................................... 177
Science, Industry, and Environment ..................................................... 178
The Arts of African American Faith: Social Transformation and the Black Religious Imagination ......................................................... 178
AIDS in America: Memory, Performance, Politics .................................... 179
Cranky Demeanors and Reparative Relations: Imagining a Politics of Responsibility and Accountability for Queer Studies ..................... 179
What Is the Place of Food Studies in American Studies?: An Interdisciplinary Roundtable Discussion .................................................... 179
Business Meeting of the Religion and American Culture Caucus ............ 180

10:00 AM – 12:30 PM

Tour of Baltimore: Art, History, Politics, and, of course, The Wire........... 180
ASA SESSIONS AT A GLANCE

Saturday, October 22 (continued)
11:00 AM – 7:00 PM

Film Series 2: “Baltimore as Muse” .................................................. 180

12:00 PM – 1:45 PM

Black Women and Girls in Baltimore: Ethnography and Intervention... 180
Visual Culture Caucus: The Illustrated Press and the Transit of Images in Twentieth-Century America ........................................... 181
Negotiating the Human-Animal Boundary .................................... 181
Imagining Depth ................................................................. 182
Disrupting the Imperialist Imaginary: Discourses of Gender and Sexuality in U.S. Wars of Empire Building................................. 182
Queer Viral Aesthetics: Control and Resistance ......................... 183
American Quarterly Theme Session III: Visuality and Race ............. 183
Prisons and Palestine .......................................................... 184
ASA Students’ Committee Forum V: Trajectories in American Studies: Futures, Limits, and New Directions ......................... 184
Challenging Narratives of Decline in the Postwar City .................. 184
Food Matters: The World Food Crisis and the Struggle for Security and Sustainability .................................................. 185
K–16 Collaboration Committee: Next Generation Engagement
  Research and Pathways in Higher Education ......................... 185
Keyword Searches: 9/11 Plus Ten ......................................... 186
Imagined Overload: Material Cultures of Excess and Minimalism
  (Sponsored by the Material Culture Caucus) ............................. 186
Trash and Flash: Ned Buntline, Cheap Literature and the Transformation of Nineteenth-Century America ...................... 187
Repairing the Body Politic: Race, Health and Justice .................. 187
On the Front Line: Literary and Legal Readings of the “Chinese Question” in Late Nineteenth-Century U.S. Culture ................. 188
Why Does Desegregation Matter?: Education Reform, Racial
  Justice and Public Memory ................................................. 188
The Church and Sexuality in America: Conflict, Solidarity, and Possibilities of Reparation ................................................. 189
Contesting Publics and Privates in the Neoliberal University .......... 189
Our Growing Community of Struggle: Angela Davis, the Cold
  War, and Transnational Historical Memory ............................ 190
Elizabeth Lapovsky Kennedy’s Interdisciplinary, Queer Career ....... 190
Japan in the Wake of 3/11 Eastern Japan Earthquake/Tsunami/
  Nuclear Disaster .............................................................. 191
Business Meeting of the Academic and Community Activism Caucus .. 191
Business Meeting of the Digital Humanities Caucus .................. 191

2:00 PM – 3:45 PM

Environment and Culture Caucus: Fantasy, Reparation, and Ideology in the Environmental Imagination ............................ 192
Beyond Immigration Politics: A Multidisciplinary Conversation about the Vietnamese Diaspora ............................................ 192
ASA SESSIONS AT A GLANCE

Saturday, October 22 (continued)
Dialogue/Roundtable: Re-imagining African American Life in the Antebellum City ............................................. 193
Imagining Nation and Empire in Print Culture I .................. 193
ASA Women’s Committee: Digital Displays: Women Imagining Blogospheres as Alternative Public Spheres ................. 194
Science and Technology Caucus: Curious Liaisons: Machines, Bodies, and the Making of Inappropriate Technology .......... 194
The Blues Epistemology: A Roundtable in Memory of Clyde A. Woods .......................................................... 195
Contesting the Foreign/Domestic Divide: Arab Revolutions and American Studies ............................................. 195
Imagined Spaces and Reparative Performances: Constructing Public Memory in the Americas......................... 196
Urban Imaginaries in Contemporary American Christianity ...... 196
K–16 Collaboration Committee: Bearing Witness: A Student-Curated, Baltimore-Based Retrospective Exhibition of Work by McCallum Tarry ................................................................. 197
The Politics of American Psychiatry: From World War II to Reagan ................................................................. 197
Mexican Biodiversity, Green Imperialism, and Indigenous Feminist Responses, Part 1 ......................................................... 198
Women Re-Imagining “America” through Physical Performance ................................................................. 199
Tracing Borders, Pushing Boundaries .................................. 200
The City and Its Spaces .................................................. 200
The Great Transformations: Labor, Land, Money, and Education ................................................................. 201
Memory in/of Early America ........................................... 201
Repairing Environments: Public Art and the Transformation of Place ................................................................. 202
Business Meeting of the International Committee .................. 202
Business Meeting of the American Quarterly Editorial Board ............................................................................. 202
War and Peace Studies Caucus Business Meeting ................ 202

2:00 PM – 5:45 PM
Business Meeting of the ASA-JAAS Project Advisory Committee ................................................................. 202

4:00 PM – 5:45 PM
Intervention and Transformation: Fred Wilson’s Mining the Museum Twenty Years Later ........................................ 202
Ruins, Renewal, and Reparation ........................................ 203
Human/Animal/Machine .................................................. 203
Black Visual Culture: Visuality, Blackness, and the Arts .......... 204
Imagining Nation and Empire in Print Cultures II ................. 204
Through The Wire: A Roundtable, A Post-Mortem ................ 205
ASA SESSIONS AT A GLANCE

Saturday, October 22 (continued)
Islamophobia: 10 Years after September 11, 2001 .......................... 205
Transforming the University Curriculum with Disability Studies:
   Interdisciplinary and Collaborative Approaches ..................... 206
Roundtable: Towards a Planetary Vision of American Studies? ... 206
Contested Reparations and Imagined Solutions: African Americans, Japanese Americans, and Palestinians .................. 207
Race and Creolization in the Early American Archive .................. 207 Reimagined Selves: Religion, Material Culture, and the Transformation of Self and Other ........................................ 208
Mexican Biodiversity, Green Imperialism, and Indigenous
   Feminist Responses, Part 2 .............................................. 208
Translating the South: Reparative Approaches to Method, Space, and Time ................................................................. 209
Multiraciality in Media: A Post-Racial United States? ................. 210
The Politics of Imagining a Religious Nation, From Eighteenth-
   Century Republicans to Twenty-first-Century Pluralists
   (Sponsored by the Religion and American Culture Caucus) .... 210
Teaching Public Scholarship: Problems and Possibilities ............ 211
Reconsidering Refugees as Immigrants: Exceptionalism in Ethnic
   History Narratives ....................................................... 211
Transforming Sound(s): A Reading and Discussion .................... 212
Business Meeting of the ASA Women’s Committee .................... 212
Business Meeting of the Environment and Culture Caucus .......... 212

6:00 PM – 7:45 PM
Plenary: Reimagining Democracy through Art ............................ 212
Reception of the University of Southern California ................... 212
Reception of the New York University American Studies Program 213

6:30 PM – 8:15 PM
Reception of Penn State Harrisburg/Eastern American Studies
   Association ................................................................. 213

6:30 PM – 7:30 PM
Reception of the Mid-American American Studies Association
   Co-Sponsored by the Universities of Iowa, Kansas, and St. Louis 213

7:00 PM – 8:45 PM
Reception of the University of Michigan .................................. 213
Reception of the Visual Culture Caucus and the Material Culture Caucus (Sponsored by Boston University’s American and New England Studies Program, University of Delaware’s Center for Material Culture Studies, and the University of Pennsylvania’s
   Department of the History of Art) ..................................... 213
ASA SESSIONS AT A GLANCE

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 23, 2011

8:00 AM – 9:45 AM

Transforming Melville .............................................. 214
Everyday Media and Practices of Popular Power .................. 214
Enacting/Imagining Capitalist Transformation: Aesthetics, Political Economy, and Commodity Exchange .................................. 215
Beyond the Religious Right: Histories of American Christian
Liberalism .................................................................. 215
Colored People’s Time: On Blackness, Alterity, and Timeliness .... 216 American Capitalism and Christian Fundamentalism: National and Transnational Perspectives ......................................... 216
The Transnational Turn in American Studies: Critical Negotiations .... 216
Who’s Passing for Whom?: Racial Passing and the Problem of African American Identity in the Early Twentieth Century ....... 217
Documentary Culture in the United States, 1945–1989:
A Roundtable ............................................................... 217
Exploring Globalization in Southern Metropolitan Regions ....... 218
The Pequot War Reconsidered ........................................... 218
Staging Black Power: Theatricality and Black Arts ................ 218
Reproducing and Naturalizing Imperial Power: The Law,
Institutionalized Histories, and Humanitarian Discourses ......... 219
War and the Visceral Imagination ....................................... 219
Negotiating Ethnicity through Arts and Leisure .................... 220
American Regionalism and the New Technologies ................ 220
American Liberalism and U.S. Imperial Power: Colombia and the Philippines in the Mid-Twentieth Century .......................... 221

10:00 AM – 11:45 AM

Baltimore City as Laboratory: Transformations of Urban Neighborhoods through Public History Programming .............. 221
Witnessing, Violence, and the (Im)Possibilities of Reparations .... 222
Pre-Occupied Space ....................................................... 222
Film Presentation: Caught Between Two Worlds .................... 222
Reshaping Religious Selves: Adaptation and Redefinition among American Pentecostals and Spiritualists at the Turn of the Twentieth Century ...................................................... 223
Vital Subjects: Biopolitics and Thanatopolitics in (Trans)national
American Studies ......................................................... 223
Queer Social Transformations ......................................... 224
The Golden Years: Fifties TV and Radio .............................. 224
As If: Ethnographies of the Subjunctive ............................... 225
Racial and Radical Formations in Black and Latino Politics
during the Long Sixties ................................................. 225
Humor Studies Caucus: Ethnic Humor: Pleasures and Problems .... 226
Childhood, Sexuality and the Politics of Consent .................... 226
ASA SESSIONS AT A GLANCE

Sunday, October 23 (continued)
Redressing the Past, Repatriating the Future: Indigenous Cultural Studies and the Speculative Genres of Imagination ............... 226
Transforming the Racial Order: The Politics of Cultural Memory in an Era of Neoliberal Reform ............................................ 227
Reparative Warhol ................................................................. 227
Southern Crucible: Paradigms of Race and Religiosity in Colonial Georgia ................................................................. 228
Disciplining Gendered Bodies: The Strategic Performance of Ethnic Identity in Musical, Literary, and Visual Culture .......... 228
Love and Other Practical Pursuits ............................................ 229